Dear Praying Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May 15, 2017

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. II Thess 3:1-2

“We long to see people saved; but in order to that, they must be born again- and this we cannot ourselves accomplish. Change a stone into flesh? Try that at home with a piece of stone on your table before you attempt it with hard hearts of men!” Charles Spurgeon

A few Tuesdays ago we were out passing out tracts when a young man asked me if he could come by and visit me with about five young men the upcoming Sunday as they wanted to learn how to preach. Imagine my delight when as Sunday school started 9 young men and an older man walked into our yard and sat underneath the house with us and heard the teaching and preaching. A clear presentation of the substitutionary work of Christ was presented. Afterwards they wanted to sit and talk with me. Which we did for almost two hours. I begin our session by showing them that the word of God is our authority. Some opened their Bibles (NIV) and others their electronic devices. None had ever read their Bible through and though they had the wrong scriptures the truth they had was from a King James. i.e. I John 5:7. Interesting as I found out 9 of the ten had been sprinkled as babies so showing them Acts 8:37 was missing from their bibles served dual purposes.

After showing the importance of God’s word (Psalms 138:2) I asked them how I could be saved. “I have 15 minutes before I die, I am lost in my sin and don’t want to go to hell. What must I do to be saved?” Varied answers but none that would help me in my condition. The one young man who had not been sprinkled said I needed to be baptized and receive the Holy Ghost (By the way he had not been baptized himself) Wrong answer.

I covered Romans 10:1-4 ...for they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God”. I gave them all my number and told them they are welcome to come at any time and we will open the Holy Scriptures and teach the scriptures which are able to make thee wise unto salvation. Once saved those same scriptures can make the man of God perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works”. II Tim 3:15-17

So what was going on? They were all 11th and 12th grade young men who wanted to be taught how to preach as they had seen a vision? They don’t even know what salvation is.

1. In a country where 97% are “Christian” you have a bunch of religious people trying to establish their own righteousness.
2. If I get hooked up with an American I can get to America and go to school. (Their Vision)

I am a means to their end. But I refuse to make them a means to my ends. I am a preacher of the Gospel. Jesus Christ came into the world to die for sinners, was buried and rose again the third day for our justification. I Cor 15:1-4, Romans 4:24-25.

Solo, a soldier in the PNG Defense force who received a tract from me and later from others in our church, waited patiently to talk to me once I finished with these young men. He also was a first time visitor. He was straight to the point and told me he would do anything to go to America and wanted my help. I asked him about the message of Christ redemptive work that he just heard. Nothing. Blank. I told him he needed according to the scriptures “to seek after the Lord Jesus Christ as silver, and searchest for him as for hid treasures.” (Pro 2:1-9) Like he desired America he needed to desire the Lord Jesus Christ. NO that’s not what he wants. Totally cold to the convicting power of the word preached. I was an end to his means.

Result- Solo and the ten young men did not come to church this past Sunday. No phone call. Why? They are not hungering and thirsting after righteousness. That happens when we have had enough of our sin and this present evil world and want deliverance from our selves. Pray that they would wake up to reality and seek the truth.

Whenever anyone will talk to me, which is all the time here, I ask them, “Sir, Ma’am, what must I do to be saved?” All know the wages of sin is death. But this question gets the shot gun answer. Once they can’t answer that, I ask them, “How were you saved?” The bottom line is 15 minutes of life left can’t get you saved by religion as one was honest enough to say because you don’t have enough time to do what religion says needs to be done. But my dear friend a sinner can get saved in a blink of an eye if they will see their sinfulness and Gods righteousness and call upon him for salvation. Have you made that call dear reader? Don’t delay. Jesus Christ died in your place. The just for the unjust!

Gwendolyn is fully recovered from Dengue fever! Thanks for Prayers.

Anna will be leaving us July 1st as visa runs out. Pray for direction!

Found a piece of land the men of the church are considering. Pray for Gods will!
